

English Spoken: The Position of English in Brussels

Research Day, Université Saint-Louis (Brussels)

Tuesday 30st May 2017

With the support of SESLA (Université Saint-Louis, Bruxelles), CLaRA (Aston University), BRIO, Brussels Studies Institute

9.45-10.00:	Enrolment / coffee
10.00-10.15:	Welcome
10.15-10.45:	Janssens (VUB): General introduction
10.45-11.15:	Aylott (Aston U): English : Third unofficial language in Brussels
11.15-11.45:	Blondeau (U. Florida) and Labeau (Aston U.): Evolution of the status and corpus of English 1989-2010s
11.45-12.15	Piccirilli (U. Florida): Language attitudes towards the presence of English in Brussels, Belgium
12.15 -13.30:	Lunch
13.30-14.00:	Vandenbroucke (Gent): Socio-economic stratification of English in globalized landscapes: a market-oriented perspective
14.00-14.30:	De Cock (UCL-Louvain): Students' use of English during internships in the Brussels area
14.30-15.00:	Cox (VUB: English as a lingua franca in the emergency department
15.00-15.30:	Coffee break
15.30-16.30:	Roundtable : English in Brussels, research avenues